

Jenik Radon

Columbia University
International Affairs (MC: 3323)
420 West 118th Street
New York, NY 10025
Tel. 1-212-496-2700; jr2218@columbia.edu

---

Education

- Stanford Law School (J.D., 1971)
- Univ. of California at Berkeley (M.C.P., City Planning & Reg. Development, 1971)
- Columbia College (B.A., Economics, 1967)

Experience

- Columbia University (2002- present)
Adjunct Assistant Professor, School of International and Public Affairs (SIPA)
Faculty member: Harriman Institute, The Center for the Study of Human Rights, Institute of Latin American Studies, Initiator and sponsor: "Eurasian Pipeline – Road to Peace, Development and Interdependencies Colloquium" (2006 - present)
- Advisor (2006- present)
On energy (oil and gas), extractive industries and/or constitutional process to government and civil society in Bhutan, Laos, Malawi, Nepal, Uganda; and prospectively in several other nations in Africa, Asia and Latin America; previously Georgia re Baku-Tbilisi-Ceyhan pipeline and oil and gas matters, Estonia on privatization
- Radon Law Offices (Radon & Ishizumi) (1983 – present)
specializing in the representation of international corporations and advising foreign emerging nations' governments and representing their state owned enterprises.
- Monterrey Institute of Technology, Queretaro
(School of Management and Social Sciences), Queretaro, Mexico (2008- present), Appointed: "Distinguished University Professor"
- Whitman College
State of Washington, USA (Fall - 2009), Ashton J. and Virginia Graham O'Donnell Visiting Professor/ Educator in Global Studies in Politics Department
- Stanford University: (Stanford Law School (2000-02); Stanford Graduate School of Business (2000-01): Lecturer
- Walter, Conston, Alexander & Green (2000)
Partner (now Alston, Bird).

Publications

- Jenik Radon and Julius Thaler, "Resolving conflicts of interest in state-owned enterprises," in From curse to blessing? Using natural resources to fuel sustainable development, ed. Irakli Khodeli International Social Science Journal (Wiley-Blackwell and UNESCO, 2009);
- Jenik Radon, Margo Tatgenhorst Drakos and Tarek Farouk Maassarani, "Getting Human Rights Right," Stanford Social Innovation Journal (December, 2007);
- Jenik Radon, "How To Negotiate Your Oil Agreement" in Escaping the Resource Curse, ed. Macartan Humphreys, Jeffrey Sachs and Joseph Stiglitz (Columbia University Press, 2007), pgs 96 -122;
- Jenik Radon, "The Constituent Assembly, a place of and for all voices," July 21, 2006, Kantipur Online - Kathmandu, Nepal, Kathmandu Post and Himalayan Times;
- Jenik Radon and Jasmine Henz, "Ethics in Business (MBA) Education – A New Must," International Management Development Research Yearbook "Technology, Structure, Environment, And Strategy Interfaces In A Changing Global Business Arena," June 2006;
- Jenik Radon and Jasmine Henz, "The New Mantra: Bribers Beware," Journal Of Transnational Management (Volume 11, Issue 4 (2006));
- " 'Hear No Evil, Speak No Evil, See No Evil' Spells Complicity," in Compact Quarterly (Volume 2005, Issue 2), published by the (United Nations) Global Compact;

- Jenik Radon, “The ABCs of Oil Agreements” in Covering Oil: A Reporter’s Guide to Energy and Development, a collaborative work between the Revenue Watch program of the Open Society Institute and the Initiative for Policy Dialogue at Columbia, ed. Anya Schiffrin and Svetlana Tsalik (2005);
- Jenik Radon, “Sovereignty: a Political Emotion, Not a Concept,” in the Stanford Journal of International Law (Vol. 40, 2004).

Synergistic Activities

- Columbia University: instructor since 2005 (together with Donal O’Neill and members of the human rights faculty) of a simulation based on Africa or Latin America for the class entitled “Oil, Rights and Development.”
- Whitman College: instructor in 2009 (together with Donal O’Neill) of a simulation based on Africa for the school as well as my own class.
- Created the syllabuses and work plan for all of my classes at Columbia, Monterrey Tech, Whitman and Stanford.
- Created and sponsored internships in various nations, including Estonia, Georgia, Nepal, South Africa and other nations, which are on-the-ground practical and academic learning experiences, now followed by directed research.
- Columbia University: creating a modern / web based class (on-going)

Collaborators and Other Affiliations

- Co-authors: Julius Thaler (World Bank), Jasmine Henz (Hertie School of Governance, Berlin), Margo Tatgenhorst Drakos (InstantEncore) and Tarek Farouk Maassarani (practicing lawyer).
- Member of International Board of Advisors, The Journal of Global Analysis, of the Centre for Strategic Research and Analysis (CESRAN), Turkey (2009- ). See http://cesran.org/index.php?option=com\_content&view=category&layout=blog&id=183&Itemid=194&lang=en for list of co-advisors; Member of Editorial Board, International Journal of Economic Policy in Emerging Economies, (2006-present). See <http://www.inderscience.com/browse/index.php?journalID=219#board> for list of editorial board members; Member of Editorial Board, International Journal of Trade and Global Markets, (2006-present). See <http://www.inderscience.com/browse/index.php?journalID=130#board> for list of editorial board members.
- I have been an advisor for master theses of number of Columbia students . I do not have a full list or their exact number (but about 15), but do include Nuray Aridici, Ilgizya Briskie, Beth Fasceletti, Loreto Ferrer Moreau, Christine Guluzian, Martin Fismen, George Hodge and Mark Mozur.