

Strategic Solution For

AFRICA DEVELOPMENT

United Nation Post-2015
Integrated Development Plan

Help Point International Foundation - Global University System -GUS-Multi-National Task Force Facilitating UN Development Goals

Strategic Solutions To Uplift Africa

United Nation, MDG POST-2015 Agenda

GUS-GLORIA/ACE Remote & Rural Areas Low-cost, High-Speed Internet Access Help Points
Health Care, Skills Acquisition Education and Training, Economic & Infrastructure Development

Executive Summary Presented by Professor Edwin Scott Asemota
Help Point Int. Foundation- GUS Partnership

JOIN THE GLOBAL ACTION FOR CHANGE

Achieving the Millennium Development Goals in Africa

Global University Systems , High impact and low-cost interventions Digital Skill Acquisition Africans training Help Points.

Telemedicine maternal and child health , reproductive health and family planning.

To be instrumental in reducing the unacceptable mother & Child deaths rate, unbridled population overgrc collaborated with Japan government, edited Mother- Child visual Hand book

The High impact Programs improves health , support uplift of low quality life and reduce suffering, fulfills hopes and vision of all citizens. dramatically improve essential and basic support needed to uplift the que

Prof. Edwin Scott Asemota (Light colored suit) with Prof. Danquah, (Ghanaian and cousin of Kofi Annan, former UN, Secretary General , negotiating with members of the European Union.

FUNDS SOLICITATION FOR

GUS/GLORIAD/ACE and Telemedicine Help Points for remote/rural areas in African countries

